

Take Action for Children without Parental Care

- Help children in your community grow up in a family or a family-like environment.
- Relatives, friends, community members and authorities should help families stay together if possible.
- Help make sure that every child in your community has an adult caregiver.
- Relatives, friends, community members and authorities can support child-headed families to identify appropriate, loving adult caregivers.
- Support parents of children with disabilities by offering your help with their childcare responsibilities.
- Help families that include children with disabilities stay together.
- Talk to your relatives and friends about possible care for your child in the event that your child becomes an orphan.
- Notice if there are any unsupervised children in the street: no child should be spending time in the street during school hours and without parental supervision.
- Learn more about the plight of street children and how to help them reintegrate into society.
